AMUSEMENTS
According to the exchanges of other nearby cities, "The Stampede" to be presented at Holland's Opera House to night is perhaps the masterpiece of one of America's youngest and most talented playwrights, Cecil B. De Mille, who has to his credit such notable plays as "The Return of Peter Grim" in which David Warfield is appearing this season, "Strongheart" which brought fame and fortune to Robert Edson, Nat Goodwin's success of a few seasons ago, "The Genius" and several other well known plays.
"The Stampede" is not a wild Western melodrama, but a fitting companion to "The Squawman".
"The Virginian", and other similar plays that have delighted thousands in past seasons. It has been mounted with a massive and complete scenic production with every little attention to detail and lighting effects usually given a Belasco production.
Philadelphia Won.
The baseball season in the American League closed yesterday. Philadelphia gets the pennant.

Midnight In The Ozarks and yet sleepless Hiram Seranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed.
He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home.
Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, its the best

Last Of The Mohawks.
Dunkirk, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Mrs.
Lucy Foxtatter, known as the last of the Mohawks, who lived in the Pagan district of the Cattaraugus Indian reservation, is dead. She was 96 years old and presented a wreath of flowers to President Fillmore at the time Fillmore, Daniel Webster and the other members of President Fillmore's Cabinet visited Dunkirk at the opening of the Erie railroad in 1851. She was well educated and could see to read without glasses up to the time of her death.

Never Out Of Work.
The busiest little things ever made are Dr. King's New Life Pills.
Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, languor into energy, brain-fag into mental power; curing Constipation, Headache, Chills, Dyspepsia, Malaria. Only 25c at All Druggists.

Lorimer Once More.
A committee of the United States Senate will resume the Lorimer investigation at Chicago this week.

amined.

Kicked By A Mad Horse.
Samuel Birch, of Beetown, Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. Its the great healer of ulcers, burns, boils, eczema, scalds, cuts, scrofula, cold-sores, bruises and piles on earth.
Try it 25c. at All Druggists.

Wreck in Georgia.
One person was killed, two were probably fatally injured and a score were shaken up in a wreck on the Central of Georgia railroad three

Saved His Mother's Life.
"Four doctors had given me up," writes Mrs. Laura Gaines, of Avoca, La., "and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I do so, and they have done me a world of good. I will always praise them." Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. Use them and gain new health, strength and vigor. They're guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Only 50c at All Druggists.

Jack Daniel Dead.
Lynchburg, Tenn., Oct. 11.—Jack Daniel, one of the most noted distillers in the United States, died at his home, two miles south of this place, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, aged 63 years. Mr. Daniel, until recent years, was owner and manager of the Jack Daniel distillery, manufacturing the celebrated No. 7 brand of Lincoln county whisky.
This distillery is now owned by Lem Motlow, a nephew of the deceased, who disposed of the property a few years ago on account of declining health. For about forty years Mr.
Daniel was engaged in the manufacture of whisky in this section and, although he spent his money lavishly and contributed liberally to charitable enterprises, he died possessed of an estate valued at $250,000.
Mr. Daniel was a bachelor. He is survived by a brother, Wylie Daniel of Lincoln county, and a sister, Mrs.
Bettie Conner of Lynchburg, and numerous more distant relatives.

Two Runaway Boys.
Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 11.—Rufus Whittinghill and Huston Hanger, aged respectively eighteen and fourteen, disappeared from their homes here late Saturday. The boys are known to have left together, but their whereabouts are unknown. The parents of the boys are much excited and seeking to locate them. Mrs.
Hanger, mother of the youngest, has indefinite information that her boy is in Nashville. They dropped hints among their companions that Florida was their destination.

Hit Booker T.
New York, Oct. 11.—Harry Ulrich, who was arrested several months ago on a charge of assaulting Booker T.
Washington, will be tried in General Sessions Court here, next Monday.
The time for the trial was fixed today. An Assistant District Attorney applied to the court to-day for several subpoenas in connection with the case. Ulrich is at liberty in $500 bail.

Advertising Pays.
Rockport, Ky., Oct. 9. Miss Bessie Southard, aged thirty-eight, the daughter of Mrs. Bryson Southard, of Centertown, Ohio county, was selected by H. C. King, Chief Orchard-ist for State Senator Dunlap, of Savoy, Ill., to be his wife over 526 other applicants.
King's wife died last spring and the position held by him required that he be a married man. Upon the advice of friends he advertised for a wife and in reply to the "ad" he received 527 replies from women, who were willing to become his bride.

NOT ROMANTIC BUT SAVING Men Do Not Call Taxicabs Until They Know Women's Toilet is Nearly Completed.
"I'm just pinning in my braid," said the young woman who had been called to the telephone. "Oh, about twenty minutes, I guess."
"That is a trick," she said, "that came in with taxicabs. A man going anywhere with a woman in an old-fashioned cab would have squandered half a week's salary before he would telephone to her about the stage of her toilet. But with taxicabs it is different. They eat up money faster than the old cabs, and it is nothing unusual now for an escort to ask how much longer it will take to get ready. Within fifteen or twenty minutes of the time set he calls a taxicab and gets here just as you are going downstairs. Not very romantic, no; but it is sensible and saves money to get married on."

CYLINDRICAL LIGHTNING.
What appears to be a well-attested instance of lightning in the form of a cylinder, since it is reported in an Italian scientific journal by Prof.
Ignazio Galli, occurred at Rome on January 3. At seven o'clock in the evening, when a brilliant discharge of lightning occurred over the city, a glowing cylinder three decimeters in diameter issued from a wall at the point of attachment of a telephone wire. It passed horizontally over the table containing the telephone, and between two persons seated close together, and then went out of an open door. A few seconds later an explosion was heard. None of the persons present felt any effect from the presence of the cylinder, which was silvery white, with a slightly bluish or violet tinge, and no noise or odor was detected during its presence, which lasted only a few seconds.

Who Was There That You Knew?
In the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long-ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.
3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from a pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to acquire the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Grant, the help of the Review or Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs.
It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you have heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and show strange things.
